Our Commitment to the Environment

At Anantara Bophut Koh Samui Resort we are committed to making environmentally and socially responsible decisions in all aspects. As well as eliminating plastic straws from all of our properties, at Eclipse we are proud to offer a menu of 100% locally sourced high quality Thai ingredients.

We have worked closely with small scale suppliers, dedicated to sustainable production while maintaining a low carbon footprint.

Included in our menu are free range, corn fed chicken from Chiang Rai province, Thai raised high welfare Berkshire pigs from Sloan's butchers as well as organic mushrooms and fresh pressed soy bean curd produced right here on Koh Samui. Our Kamchan organic rice is sourced directly from small scale mills in Nakornpathom province.

THAI MENU

Kantok Sets

Kantok refers to the low round table used to hold the food, and its origins can be traced back to 1953 when Mr. Kraisee Nimmanahaeminda who was recognized as an Outstanding Northern Cultural Advocate, held a dinner party for some important guests. This traditional dinner ritual is from Lana tribes, the tribe which live in northern part of Thailand. The dining experience is based upon seven different specialties from the northern region of Thailand. Mouth tantalizing appetizers, raw vegetable salad, curries and dessert, an authentic experience to take home!
